Get to Know us at Southpaw...

Drake Mondrianh Sr. Financial Analyst

Drake has been a part of Southpaw since August 2023, and works closely alongside Steve Sanchioni with budgeting, forecasting, and financial reporting. For Drake, what truly stands out about Southpaw is the people. He says, "It's a rare gem to find colleagues who genuinely care about each other, and this aspect resonates deeply with me."

As a family-oriented individual, he strongly believes that fostering meaningful relationships and nurturing a culture of support and collaboration is paramount. Drake comes from a massive family with 13 siblings, and here's a fun tidbit about him — he is one-quarter Chinese and was primarily raised in a Chinese household.

When he's not at work or focused on family, he is passionate about physical fitness and outdoor activities. He spends his time biking, skiing, snowboarding, surfing, and strength training. He also has a passion for interior design, real estate and travel. Plus, he's an unabashed foodie; he revels in the pleasure of sampling new dishes and experiencing various cuisines.

Drake's Dunkin Order: Caramel Swirl Iced Coffee with a side of hash browns!

Drake's Taco Bell Order: Steak quesadilla and cinnamon swirls with Baja blast

3 words to describe Drake: Ambitious, Reliable, Diligent
